Rules & Points Allocation

Open to current financial members of WAAHA (Inc.) on completion of a nomination form available from Leanne White, P.O., Box 4146, Myaree BC 6960 or download from the WAAHA website www.waaha.com.au Copy of horses registration to be included with entry. Points score sheet will be posted out on receipt of correct entry. Rider's name to be included on entry.

Points accrue from the time the entry is received by WAAHA. Competition runs from 1st January until December 31st of each year. One rider, one horse policy. Multi rider points do not count. Separate points sheet to be used for each category entered.

Trophies and prizes to be awarded to the horses (one Purebred with one rider only and one Derivative with one rider only) with the highest points. A Youth Award will also be offered to a youth rider on an Arabian or Derivative. Youth riders not eligible for previous two awards. Saddle World Maddington has kindly sponsored both of the open awards with a $150 Gift Voucher and WAAHA will provide a trophy. Koojan Hills Arabians will provide a $150 voucher and WAAHA will also provide a trophy for the Youth Award.

Points may only be gained in Open Competition ie Hacking, Show Jumping, Dressage, Eventing, Pony Club (Zone & State events only), Harness, Endurance, Camp Drafting etc. as outlined below. Breed shows and classes restricted by breed DO NOT count. Rider classes DO NOT count.

An official's name of the event along with a phone number must verify results with their signature where possible in order to be eligible and a signed Statutory Declaration to be included with result sheet when sent back at the conclusion of the competition by 31st December. Announcement of winners will be made at the WAAHA Annual General Meeting in February following the year of the competition and results printed in the WAAHA Newsletter and posted on the WAAHA website.
