The ULTIMATE will be judged by both the HALTER and RIDDEN Judges (independently) and will involve a workout at Halter and a Ridden workout. In the event of a tie, the points awarded by the international Judge will take precedence.

The Rider/Handler must be the same as when the horse qualified, i.e. ridden by the same rider and shown by the same handler. In the event of a rider/handler qualifying more than one horse, a substitute rider may be used in WARM UP ONLY.

Assistance is allowed to saddle the horse however only two people are permitted in the ring at any one time. Head-gear may be changed, but the horse must be in safe and substantial headgear AT ALL TIMES.

FROM 1998, Once a horse has won ULTIMATE Arabian or Derivative, it may defend its title once, providing that it qualifies in the normal manner.

FROM 2003, The defence must be at THE ALL ARABIAN SHOW within three years immediately after it has won the award.

A defender that is entered in the show but does not qualify for ULTIMATE will be considered an unsuccessful defender. A defender entered in the show who qualifies but does not present for judging of ULTIMATE will be considered an unsuccessful defender, unless there is a genuine reason (horse or rider becomes ill or injured or other extenuating circumstances) to prevent competition, THE SHOW COMMITTEE MUST BE NOTIFIED IN WRITING, PRIOR TO LEAVING THE SHOW, if this is the case. An unsuccessful defence or winning the ULTIMATE twice, will eliminate the horse from further participation in this event in future years.

These rules were amended at the A.G.M. 20th FEBRUARY 2010 by majority vote of members present.
